Protection of Personal Data

All personal data provided to HighBlock will be securely stored with restricted access by authorized personnel only. We utilize encryption/security software for data transmission so as to protect your data. By encrypting data into a secure format, we ensure its privacy and security from unauthorized access or disclosure, accidental loss, alteration or destruction.

In addition, we may adopt contractual or other means to prevent any personal data transferred to HighBlock's data processors: (i) from being kept longer than is necessary for processing of the data; and (ii) from unauthorized or accidental access, processing, erasure, loss or use, if HighBlock is to engage any data processor.

However, transmission of information over the internet is never completely secure. While HighBlock takes all reasonable measures to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted to our website(s). Once your personal data is received, HighBlock implements strict procedures and security measures to prevent unauthorized access.

Notice on Direct Marketing

Where you have provided consent and have not opted out, HighBlock may, from time to time, use your personal data (including your name and contact details) to send you direct marketing or promotional communications, such as emails containing news, promotions, events, and special offers. These communications may be sent on our behalf by third-party service providers.

If you do not wish to continue to receive direct marketing or promotional materials from HighBlock, you may opt out by:

- (i) clicking the "unsubscribe" button at the bottom of our marketing communications; or
- (ii) sending us an email to support@bitv.com providing your full name and contact details.

We will cease sending you any marketing communications and will stop providing your personal data to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. We will also inform any third parties who have previously received your personal data to discontinue using it for direct marketing.

Please note that you may still receive marketing communications for a short period after updating your preferences, as we or the relevant third parties may require time to update our systems.

If your personal data has been used for direct marketing, you have the right to request information about the source of that data. This request is free of charge, and we will provide the source unless it is not practicable or reasonable for us to do so.

Retention of Personal Data

In compliance with legal, regulatory, supervisory, or accounting requirements, the personal data you provide to us will be retained in an appropriate format only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purpose for which the service was provided, after which it will be securely destroyed.

Access and Rectification of Personal Data

Upon request, we will provide you with information regarding the processing of your personal data, as well as your rights and available remedies under these principles. You may enquire about the personal data we hold or process by sending an email to us that includes:

- a request to rectify any personal data we hold about you;
- a request to delete or erase your personal data;
- an objection to the sharing of your personal data (where applicable); or
- an objection to your personal data being analysed or profiled.

Termination or Cancellation

Should your relationship with HighBlock be cancelled or terminated at any time, HighBlock shall cease processing your personal data as soon as reasonably practicable following such cancellation or termination, provided that HighBlock may keep copies of the data as is reasonably required for reasonable purposes, such reasonable purposes shall include keeping of records, use in relation to any actual or potential dispute, complying with applicable laws and regulations, and protecting HighBlock's rights, property or safety, or the rights, property or safety of HighBlock's employees and agents.

Certain personal data (such as your personal and contact information) is required for you to continue using our website and services. If you do not provide such data, we may be unable to deliver the relevant website functions or services to you. By submitting your personal data to us, you acknowledge that doing so is fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

The principles set out in this policy reflect our commitment to safeguarding your personal data. As this policy and its principles may be revised from time to time, you are encouraged to review it periodically to stay informed of our latest personal data protection practices.

Language

If there is any inconsistency or conflict between the English and Chinese versions of this Privacy Policy, the English version shall prevail.
